Counter Terrorist and Security Training

Hands-on training is part of the implementation process of any security design, and every risk analysis will have recommendations of key person training to uphold the standard emergency procedures. Proper security training will ensure that prompt action is taken and nothing is left to guess work, making sure everything possible is done to minimize loss and manage risk.

Cultural Awareness Programs

Studies indicate that cross cultural training and relocation services have a major impact on the success or failure of an international assignment or venture. SightSpan provides in person training to individuals and teams being re-located and prepares expatriates to deal with changing employment and social situations, overall cultural awareness and known security issues. SightSpan programs are complete packages including: initial training, follow up/on-going remote training, and on location classes across multiple global regions.

Business Process Improvement Training – Six Sigma and Lean BPI
